

International Conference on Nonlinear Analysis:
Kinetic Theory, Gas Dynamics, and Related Fields
Institute of Mathematics, Academia Sinica, Taipei, Taiwan
October 28 – 31, 2017

Singular support of Green's function of a linear Navier-Stokes equation and its applications

Shih-Hsien Yu

National University of Singapore
E-mail: matysh@nus.edu.sg

Abstract

An asymptotic expansion of the spectral information of the linearized compressible Navier-Stokes equation is used to construct a singular support of the Green's functions of a linearized compressible Navier-Stokes equation. With this construction, a complete pointwise construction for the quasi-linear problem is obtained.